「國外教授來訪學術演講」-The global prison system

時間：2021-04-08
地點：T505

Mr. Jason Avraham was invited to give a guest lecture at the course ‘Special Subject on International Law’. As a former professor and an official at the US Department of Justice, Mr. Avraham shared with the class his vast experience navigating the global prison system. Specifically, Mr. Avraham discuss concerns within the global prison system while offering numerous examples from his personal experience and ideas on prison reform. Some of the topics which Mr. Avraham covered in his speech include, inter alia, does higher education belong in the prison system and why do so many orphans end up incarcerated? Following his presentation and during the Q&A Session, Mr. Avraham discussed with students about issues such as the capital punishment in Taiwan and the Taiwanese enforcement procedures in the context of drugs.
